The Graduate School
Supporting the Postgraduate Student Experience

GTA Programme

Current GTA Provision
The Graduate School currently offers the following workshops to any doctoral student who is engaged in teaching-related duties:

- Introduction to Teaching Methods in Higher Education
- Assessment and Feedback in Practice
- Practical Guidance for your Application for Associate Fellowship of the HEA
- Developing Teaching through Reflective Writing

Proposed New GTA Programme
The Graduate School is currently working on a proposal for a new GTA programme, accredited by the HEA at D1 (Associate Fellow status).

Core 1: Learning & Teaching
- How students learn
- Preparing classes
- Student diversity and inclusivity
- Challenging scenarios
- Filmed microteaching

Core 2: Assessment & Feedback
- Types of assessment
- Methods of providing feedback
- Good practice when giving feedback

Options
- Laboratory teaching
- Small-group teaching
- Learning technologies
- Interculturality in the classroom
- Conducting and publishing pedagogic research
- GTA Retreat - reflecting on your teaching practice
- ...

AFHEA
- GTA programme accredited at D1 level of the UKPSF
- Applicants complete at least the two core modules and submit an assignment reflecting on their practice
GTA TRAINING: DISCUSSION POINTS

What have been your experiences of working with GTAs?

Do you have any feedback on the current GTA provision?

What are likely to be the main outcomes of the CR in your department?

How might these curriculum changes affect the training needs of your GTAs?