Paul MacCready Jr
(deceased)

Dyslexic – Neurodiverse
Aeronautical Engineer.

- In the aviation industry he was known by many as “the father of human-powered flight”

- Transformed the field of solar-powered locomotion as well as glider flight

- Won the first Kremer prize

Further information available from:
http://www3.imperial.ac.uk/disabilityadvisoryservice/abouttheservice/contactus/dasteam
Email: disabilities@imperial.ac.uk