

Professor Sir Richard Brook Prize 2017 for the best ceramics PhD in the UK. Sponsored by Morgan Advanced Materials

Imperial College London

Nominations are invited for the Professor Sir Richard Brook Prize 2017 to the best ceramics science or engineering PhD thesis in the UK. The recipient of the prize will be decided by the CASC's steering group, formed by members of UK universities, industries and funding bodies, together with some international representatives.

Richard Brook is one of the UK's leading ceramic scientists. He has headed research groups at Leeds and Oxford Universities and has been editor of the Journal of the European Ceramic Society, CEO of the EPSRC and Director of the Leverhulme Trust.

CASC is grateful to Morgan Advanced Materials for their sponsorship of this prize. For more information on Morgan Advanced Materials, visit:

<http://www.morganadvancedmaterials.com>

Award

The award consists of a certificate, plaque and a £1000 check.

Date to be announced for the presentation of the award.

Centre for Advanced Structural Ceramics (CASC)

Nominations

PhD supervisors should provide the following information about the PhD student:

- Copy of the award certificate.
- Copy of any resulting publication or presentation.
- Abstract of the nominees thesis.
- Short supporting statement.

Nominations should be received by the CASC director, Professor Eduardo Saiz (e.saiz@imperial.ac.uk), by the 15th of January 2018.

Further information: www.imperial.ac.uk/casc , a.matas-adams@imperial.ac.uk or +44 20 7594 2053