Location
Silwood Park is a postgraduate campus of Imperial College London located about 25 miles west of Central London, near the village of Sunninghill in Ascot, Berkshire. Situated in about 100ha of natural parkland, it has been part of Imperial College since 1947.

Imperial College London, Silwood Park Campus, Buckhurst Road, Ascot, Berkshire, SL5 7PY, UK.

Road
Silwood Park is situated on the A329 (Virginia Water to Reading) by its junction with the B383. The main entrance is on the B383 about 300m north of the intersection, there are ample free parking spaces on-site.

Rail
The nearest railway stations are Sunningdale (2 km) and Ascot (3km), which are on the main line from London Waterloo to Reading. There are two trains per hour in each direction on weekdays. There is a taxi service at Ascot station.

Air
Although Silwood is only a few kilometres from London Heathrow, there is no direct public transport from the airport, however, there is a limited bus service from Heathrow.

A taxi from Heathrow only takes approx. 30 minutes and will cost £25 when arranged through our local taxi firm, Ascot Cars: 01344 297297
