BUILDING UPDATES

North site

Residential Tower

There has been a significant water leak at the Residential Tower, which will delay the completion of the building. Contractors Laing O’Rourke will remain on site until the late autumn to complete remedial works.

Michael Uren Biomedical Engineering Research Hub

In January, contractors ISG continued with the internal fit-out of the building, including joinery works and the installation of laboratory furniture and flooring. During February, ISG expect to progress with landscaping works and to remove the hoist from the exterior of the building.

South site

Scale Space
At Scale Space in January, contractors Western Building Systems completed piling works, while contractors Erith began work to enable the installation of telephone and internet connections to the new buildings on the site.

In February, Western Building Systems will begin groundworks to support the installation of structural steelwork, which is part of the modular building system used on the site.
