BUILDING UPDATES

North site

Residential Tower

There has been a delay to the completion of the Residential Tower, so contractors Laing O’Rourke will continue to be on site into the New Year.

Michael Uren Biomedical Engineering Research Hub

During November, a 500ft crane was brought onto site to lift in the chillers and Air Handling Unit for the building. The installation of the concrete fins on the outside of the building has reached Level 10 and contractors ISG are now beginning to install balcony steelwork. Work to weatherproof the roof of the building is ongoing and glazing on the ground floor is ready to begin.

South site

The Invention Rooms
Work to create a new events, café and garden space at The Invention Rooms was completed in late November and the refurbished space is now open to visitors. Find out more about upcoming events and activities at The Invention Rooms at: www.imperial.ac.uk/the-invention-rooms

Scale Space
Contractors Erith are well underway with enabling and infrastructure works on the Scale Space site, including the installation of sewers and drainage. The piling rig, which will be used in the construction of the foundations for Scale Space's first new building, was delivered to site in late November. Piling is expected to begin in early December and continue into the New Year.
