Scope of service

The Careers Service offers a CV review service via My CVs. Students and recent alumni of Imperial (up to three years of graduating), with the exception of Business School MSc, MBA, and undergraduate students, can upload their CVs to the system and submit up to three for review within a 90 day period. Upon submission, a trained member of the Careers team will review the CV and provide feedback via email in one of three categories ("Looks good", "Needs some work", "Needs considerable work"). Feedback given will include comments on the CV submitted, plus further useful resources for CVs/ application process. Please allow up to three working days from submission to receive feedback.

Who has access to the personal student and CV data?

Only Imperial Careers Service staff can search and access your CVs.
