

Upcoming Zenways Mindfulness Meditation Teacher Training

Last year's meditation teacher training has been very successful.

If you have a regular Mindfulness Meditation practice and would like to take it to the next level, the natural step would be to train as a teacher to share your experience with others, supporting them to find more calm and reduce stress in their lives.

The Chaplaincy is happy to inform you that we again, in collaboration with Zenways, will be offering the non-residential 100 hour Meditation Teacher Training taking place on weekends ones a month at the Chaplaincy Multi-Faith Centre starting in April 2022.

Due to the uncertainty of the Corona Virus situation some of the training days might be delivered by Zoom.

Training weekends are:

2+3 April

7+8 May

11+12 June

2+3 July

For detailed information please follow this link:

<https://zenways.org/event/meditation-mindfulness-teacher-training-module-1-1-non-residential-2/>

Please sign up for the training directly through the Zenways website.

Imperial College London Bursary

The Chaplaincy offers either one 50% (price reduction) bursary or two 25% (price reduction) bursaries to Imperial students and staff.

If you would like to apply for the bursary please send your application to:

Hogets: h.baerndal@imperial.ac.uk

Deadline for the application March 1st.

Please let us know what motivates you and why you believe you are the right person to receive a bursary.

Please do not hesitate to get in touch with Hogets by email h.baerndal@imperial.ac.uk if you have any questions.

Hogetsu Baerndal
Mindfulness/Buddhist Chaplain
Imperial College London
Multi-Faith Centre Chaplaincy