Do you work with clients with a range of voice disorders?
Do you want to develop your toolkit of voice therapy techniques?
Do you want to provide individualised holistic patient/client centred management?
Are you a Speech and Language Therapist, Voice or Singing Teacher who would like to learn about management of the troubled voice?
Then this course is for you!
This innovative course offers an overview and practical workshops in a range of voice therapy/training approaches.

The course will include:
- Overview of common voice disorders
- Optimising voice evaluation to provide tailored therapy for each client
- Introduction to 7 areas of management and therapy tools
- Experiential voice and pair-based practical work

Teaching Faculty:
Christina Shewell MA, FRCSLT, ADVS Speech and language therapist, qualified voice teacher and communication skills coach.
Guri Sandhu MD, FRCS, FRCS (ORL-HNS) Consultant Otolaryngologist and Head & Neck Surgeon at Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust.

For further details contact:
Eva Moreno
Centre for Continuing Professional Development
Imperial College London
e: cpd@imperial.ac.uk t: 020 7594 6885

Duration: 2 day
Fees: £250 before 26th February 2019
£275 after 26th February 2019
Discount available for multiple registrations (3 or more)
Venue: Imperial College London, South Kensington

25 & 26 March 2019
Improving Voice: Management and Therapy for Voice Disorders
With Christina Shewell, MA, FRCSLT, ADVS

To register for a place visit: www.imperial.ac.uk/cpd/improving-voice