Imperial College Conference Code of Conduct

Introduction
The Enterprise Engagement team (“the organisers”) are committed to making this conference productive and enjoyable for everyone, regardless of sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, physical appearance, body size, ethnicity, nationality or religion. We will not tolerate harassment of participants in any form.

The organisers reserve the right to exclude any participant not adhering to the code of conduct.

By registering to any event organised by Enterprise Engagement, attendees are expected to adhere to this code of conduct.

Code of Conduct:
Behave professionally. Harassment and sexist, racist, or exclusionary comments or jokes are not appropriate. Harassment includes sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, sexual attention or innuendo, deliberate intimidation, stalking, and photography or recording of an individual without consent. It also includes offensive or belittling comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, physical appearance, body size, ethnicity or religion.

All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of many different backgrounds. Sexual language and imagery are not appropriate.

Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other attendees.

Incident reporting and resolution:
If you observe someone making you or anyone else feel unsafe or unwelcome, please tell them so, and remind them of the Code of Conduct.

If you are hesitant about addressing the person yourself, report it as soon as possible to a member of the Organising Committee - see contact information below. The Committee is committed to addressing and resolving the matter to the best of their abilities.

Please use the following contact information and explain what happened and who was involved so that we can investigate.

Nik Pishavadia, Director of Enterprise Engagement, n.pishavadia@imperial.ac.uk
Julia Zanghieri, Imperial Business Partners (IBP) Programme Manager, j.zanghieri@imperial.ac.uk

The organisers will meet within 2 hours of receiving the complaint and decide a course of action. The Committee would request from the complainant what mechanisms would be needed in order to safely continue at the event. This information would be taken into account toward the course of action to be taken.

Depending on the nature of the complaint, the decision may be that the Committee needs more time to gather more information, the ejection of a participant, banning them from a number of future of events, or any action that the Committee sees fitting, appropriately.

Thank you for your participation in the Imperial Business Partners community, and your efforts to keep our conference welcoming, respectful, and friendly for all participants!
