

Imperial 600 steering group

Terms of reference

The Imperial 600 steering group is the principal decision making body of Imperial 600. When making decisions the group should aim to ensure adequate representation and input from across the LGBTQ+ community and the different areas of the College community.

The steering group is responsible for:

- Determining the networks strategy working within the overall aims of the network as a staff community and the College's current strategic plan
- Establishing priorities for network activity and resources
- Providing a safe forum for members to raise opinions, challenge practice and increase awareness of discrimination in the workplace

Operational responsibility is devolved to the Imperial 600 operational group.

Constitution

The imperial 600 steering group is comprised of:

- A chair (or co-chairs) elected by the network
- A representative from the Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Centre (EDIC)
- All members of the Imperial 600 network

Membership

The membership of the the Imperial 600 steering group for the academic year 2020/21 is:

- Caz Ulley, co-chair
- Joel McConnell, co-chair
- Kalpna Mistry, EDIC
- All other members of the Imperial 600 network