

Day Trip to Cambridge

© Andrew Dunn/ CC-by-2.0

What is it?

Home of the famous Cambridge University, rowing and punting along the river.

Highlights:

- The 31 Cambridge Colleges, most of which are open to members of the public.
- Punting
- World class collections of art at the Fitzwilliam Museum
- 8,000 plant species at the Cambridge University Botanic Garden.

How do I get there?

Train: Approximately 50 minutes from London Kings Cross or 1 hour 15 minutes from London Liverpool Street. Tickets can be as cheap as £5 single if you book far enough in advance.

Coach: Approximately 2 hours from several London locations.

Car: Parking is hard to find in Cambridge. If you are going to drive you should consider using a Park and Ride scheme, which enables you to park just outside Cambridge and take a shuttle bus into the town.