

Accessing full text journal articles outside of the library

The guide provides instructions on how to access the full text of online journal articles outside of the library. It is aimed at NHS staff who are members* of Imperial College London Library.

NHS Knowledge and Library Hub

The NHS Knowledge and Library Hub is your gateway to online resources provided by Health Education England.

1. Go to library.nhs.uk/knowledgehub
2. Click on Start your search.
3. Sign in with your OpenAthens account via the yellow band at the top of the screen.
(If you do not have an OpenAthens account you can self-register at openathens.nice.org.uk)
4. Search for the article by title.
5. Beneath each result you will have an access link.
 - Get PDF and Access item provide instant access to the article.
 - Request this item takes you through to a pre-populated form to request the article from the library. We will then send the article to you via email.
(NB: You must be a library member* to use the request service)

The screenshot shows three search results from the NHS Knowledge and Library Hub. Each result includes a title, author information, and subject terms. The 'Request this item' button for the first article, the 'Access Item' button for the second, and the 'Get PDF' button for the third are circled in red to indicate the primary access methods.
