

Model Answers to Questions

1. The Senate approved at its meeting on 27 February 2013 the adoption of the following policy in respect of the preparation of model answers:
 - 1.1. Departments should provide their external examiners with model answers to questions.
 - 1.2. As a minimum, Departments should provide their students with outline answers to specimen questions, or illustrative examples of how students might address the question. Where students are required to undertake MCQ examinations, Departments should provide examples of the format of such examinations and state whether the MCQ examination is negatively marked.
2. The policy is effective from October 2013.
