

20 September 2007

COLLEGE NOTICE

DIRECTOR OF LIBRARY SERVICES

Ms Clare Jenkins will be retiring as Director of Library Services at the end of September. Under her seven years of leadership the Library has undergone major physical, organisational and technical change and has adapted to the changing needs of users. It now provides a high level of service to support learning and research excellence.

With effect from 15 October Ms Jenkins will be succeeded as Director by Mrs Deborah Shorley. Mrs Shorley has extensive experience of Library Management at a senior level and comes to the College from the University of Sussex where she has been Head of the Library Service since 2000. She was previously Assistant Director, Library and Information Services at the University of Ulster.

Mrs Shorley will report to Professor Mary Ritter, the Pro-Rector for International Affairs.

K.A. MITCHESON
College Secretary