

15 Sept 2009

COLLEGE NOTICE

HR DIRECTOR

---

After eight years as HR Director, Mr Chris Gosling will be retiring from this full time role. He will continue, on a part time basis, to retain responsibility for the coordination and appropriate management of the Safety, Occupational Health and Risk Management portfolio, adding a similar role in relation to environmental issues. He will continue to report to the Chief Operating Officer, Martin Knight, and continue to advise the Rector on top level staff HR issues.

The post of HR Director will be advertised in accordance with standard College procedures.

The changes to Mr Gosling's role will take effect on the appointment of a new HR Director.

Rodney Eastwood
College Secretary