COLLEGE NOTICE

CO-DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (ISST)

Professor Washington Yotto Ochieng FEng has accepted appointment as Co-Director of the Institute for Security Science and Technology (ISST) for a term of office of five years, effective from 1 September 2020. He will work alongside Co-Director Dr Deeph Chana.

Professor Ochieng is the current Head of the Centre for Transport Studies and Chair in Positioning and Navigation Systems in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering. He joined Imperial in 1997 as Lecturer and was promoted to Professor in 2007.

His research interests are in infrastructure resilience and security, smart user-centric intermodal mobility, and positioning and navigation systems. Professor Ochieng is a Scientific Advisor at the Department for International Development (DFID), and at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office as a Member the UK-Kenya Science, Technology and Innovation Challenge Board. In 2013, Professor Ochieng was elected Fellow of the Royal Academy of Engineering (FEng).
