

17 December 2020

COLLEGE NOTICE

FACULTY OPERATING OFFICER, FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

Tim Venables has accepted appointment as Faculty Operating Officer for the Faculty of Engineering with effect from 1 December 2020.

In this role, Tim will report to the Dean of the Faculty and will play a key role in supporting and enabling the Faculty to set and meet its academic education and research objectives. He will have overall responsibility for effective and efficient governance and for the delivery of operational and support services to staff within the Faculty.

Tim joined the College in January 2003 as a Research Fellow in the Business School, moving to Operations Manager for the Innovative Studies Centre and then to Strategic Research Manager. In 2008 Tim moved to the Faculty of Engineering where he was Department Operations Manager for the Department of Mechanical Engineering, Interim Chief Operating Officer on a secondment to the Rosalind Franklin Institute, Department Operations Manager for the Department of Bioengineering and Head of Faculty Operations. Most recently, Tim was the Acting Faculty Operating Officer.

John Neilson
College Secretary