COLLEGE NOTICE

APPOINTMENT OF VICE-DEAN (EDUCATION) FOR THE FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

Professor David Jason Riley has accepted appointment as Vice-Dean (Education) for the Faculty of Engineering, with effect from 1 October 2021, for a period of 5 years, in succession of Professor Omar Matar.

Professor Riley joined the Department of Materials at Imperial in October 2006 as a Senior Lecturer and was promoted to Reader in 2008 and to Professor of Materials Electrochemistry in 2012.

Professor Riley has held many senior departmental roles such as Director of Undergraduate Studies, Director of Research, Deputy Head of the Department. He will step down from his current role as Associate Head of Department for Education at the end of August 2021. Professor Riley is currently also Associate Director (Internal Initiatives), at the Institute of Molecular Science and Engineering (IMSE).

Professor Riley's research activities focus on the preparation, characterisation and applications of nanomaterials.
