

Application to be a Conversation Project volunteer

Conversation Project volunteers need to either work or study at Imperial College London, speak English as their first language and be able to volunteer for one one-hour session a week for at least five weeks. If you meet this criteria, please complete the form below.

Please read the following statement:

I am aware that it is essential that volunteers speak English as their first language, implying total fluency and control of the language, standard grammar and vocabulary, and an accent without strong regional variation.

I also accept that I may be contacted by Mrs Liz Chiu from the Centre for Languages, Culture and Communication to discuss my interests further to ensure my suitability for this project.

If you are happy to confirm the above, please tick here:

Further information

I speak a language other than English with my parents/close family Yes                      No

If Yes, then:

1) I have lived in _____
for 10 years including secondary school [UK or other English speaking country]

2) I moved to the country stated above at the age of _____
