Happy to share a bathroom and a kitchen?

rent a room
become a lodger! choose between living with the landlord, or find a room with strangers and meet new people get a bedsit

you'll have your own kitchen in your room, but will share bathroom facilities share with your friends find a house or a flat with your friends. You'll sign a Joint Assured Shorthold Tenancy which means you're all equally responsible for the property - be careful who you choose to live with!

Also want a separate lounge and bedroom?

rent a studio apartment everything you need in one place!

Would you like to live in a student hall environment with shared facilities e.g. kitchen?
no yes

try a studio in a private hall of residence get the best of both worlds! Complete privacy within a student atmosphere consider renting a one-bed flat you cherish your personal space and want lots of it! Be aware though: this is an expensive option live in a cluster flat within a private hall you'll have your own room - sometimes even an en-suite - but will share your kitchen with other students
