Supply after installation:
- You must be able to isolate the extractor from the mains electrical maintenance.
- Do not use silicone sealant to secure the hood to the wall.
- Do not fit the extractor in an attic or loft space.
- Do not seal the ducting with obstacles.
- Only house the extractor in rooms with adequate ventilation.
- Remember that the extractor is powerful and whatever air is extracted needs to be replaced.

Under no circumstances should the extractor be connected to any

Please note:

Wheeled dustbin:
- The product is marked with a crossed-out appliance recycling symbol. The product and its packaging should be recycled at your local authority waste collection centre. For a dealer providing appliance recycling services, contact your local authority waste collection centre or a dealer providing a product in accordance with EC Directive 2002/96/EC.

Important information for correct disposal of the safety (LVD) and electromagnetic interference compatibility (EMC):

Important safety warning: Only use the screws provided.

Which will not be covered by the warranty.

Of longer screws may cause damage to the internal wiring.

With the extractor to mount the ducting adaptor. The use

Installation.
Using Your Extractor

- Press the A button.
- To switch the extractor off as required.
- Press the relevant B button for the first second or third speed level, the extractor is running.
- To switch the extractor on or off at any time when

- Press button C.

To switch the extractor light on or off

C - Light button
B - Speed level buttons
A - Power off button

Control Panel

after the end of cooking.
before starting to cook and leave it to run for approximately 15 minutes.
For best performance, you should switch on the extractor 15 minutes.

Mounting your Extractor

Ensure that the distance between the hob and extractor is above the minimum distance. When the extractor is to be installed.

Recommended:

must exceed 500mm (650mm is recommended) above an electric hob, the minimum distance.

Recommended:

must exceed 700mm (750mm is recommended) above a gas hob, the minimum distance.

When the extractor is to be installed.

The distance between the hob and extractor

The gas supply and the installation

Read to your hob being disconnected.

This is a legal requirement and may be greater than 700mm, then that is the distance that should be observed;

if the instructions provided with your burners.

should be measured from the top of the magnetic force. Finally replace the grease filters.

one to the rear and one to either side. The filter will be held in place by Orient up the charcoal filter so that the magnetic pins are facing upwards.

described above.

To attach a new charcoal filter, first remove the grease filters as charcoal filter every four to six months depending on use.

To ensure best performance of your extractor, you should replace the

Changing the Charcoal Filter (Recirculating only)

This is normal and does not constitute a fault with the appliance.

Cleaning the grease filter in the dishwasher may lead to discoloration.

Please note:

Reversing the Removal Process.

After rinsing and drying, reassemble the grease filter to the hood by have released it at the front, then you can pull the filter out compleately.

Pull down on the filter at the front as shown in figure 2. When you

To remove the grease filter, push in the button on the handle and then prevent damage from other items in the dishwasher another individual.

When installing this product we recommend you seek the help of Specialised Personnel.

Assembly and electrical connection should be carried out by

Note: Use a 3A Fuse

An end marked L (live), or coloured red:

The wire which is coloured brown must be connected to the lamp.

marked N (neutral) or coloured black:

The terminal marked E (Earth) or coloured green:

The wire which is coloured green and yellow must be connected to connecting to the fuse spur. Proceed as follows:

correspond with the coloured markings identifying the terminals.