1. College Introduction

Welcome to the College

Congratulations on joining Imperial College London, the only university in the UK to focus exclusively on science, medicine, engineering and business.

From Fleming’s discovery of Penicillin to Gabor’s invention of holography, Imperial has been changing the world for well over 100 years.

You’re now very much a part of this community of discovery and we hope you will take this opportunity to make your own unique contribution. At Imperial, we expect all members of our community, whether students or staff, to share and demonstrate our values of respect, integrity, collaboration, innovation and excellence in all we do and strive to achieve.

The College provides a dedicated support network and a range of specialist support services to make sure you have access to the appropriate help, whether that’s further training in an academic skill like writing your literature review or simply having someone to talk to.

You’ll have access to an innovative range of professional development courses within our Graduate School throughout your time here, as well as opportunities to meet students from across the College at academic and social events – see page 6 for more information.

We actively encourage you to seek out help when you need it and try to maintain a healthy work-life balance. Our choice of over 360 clubs, societies and projects is one of the largest of any UK university, making it easy to do something different with your downtime. Access to the gym and other sporting facilities will be dependent on government guidance. We are working to ensure that you have access to a variety of resources online to support your health and wellbeing if there are restrictions.

As one of the best universities in the world, we are committed to inspiring the next generation of scientists, engineers, clinicians and business leaders by continuing to share the wonder of what we do through public engagement events. Postgraduate students, alongside our academics and undergraduate students, make a significant contribution to events such as our annual Imperial Festival and our term-time Imperial Fringe events – if you’re interested in getting involved then there will be opportunities for you to do so.

Mutual Expectations for the Research Degree Student Supervisor Partnership

The Graduate School has produced a list of minimum expectations that students and supervisors can expect from each other. It is designed to facilitate conversations to establish effective partnerships and the College requires that the document is discussed at the first meeting between a main supervisor and a new student. It should be noted that this is not exhaustive and that the student and supervisor may wish to discuss and personalise each point to suit.

https://www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/professional-development/students-as-partners/expectations--responsibilities--mutual-expectations/
Cornerstone

In April 2022 the Cornerstone Programme was launched. This dedicated umbrella support and development programme helps Imperial’s doctoral supervisors better support and guide their students throughout the PhD journey. Cornerstone was developed by experts from across College in partnership with doctoral students. The programme includes a new online self-paced course for supervisors and a website hub where all information and resources to support doctoral supervision at Imperial are available. The new online course is mandatory for all new supervisors and is available for all supervisors to access at any time to keep up to date with College supervisory processes and to enhance their supervisory practice. In addition, every six years, all supervisors are required to attend a Focus on Best Practice in Supervision CPD workshop tailored to their Department. Cornerstone is a continually evolving provision and welcomes feedback from supervisors and students – please contact Dr Victoria Crossley, the Cornerstone Programme Lead.

Open-plan offices

All new students are allocated a desk in one of our open-plan offices for the duration of their active research period. Once a student has transferred to writing-up status, their desk may remain available for a period of up to six months if capacity permits, otherwise it will be necessary to relocate the student’s PC to their supervisor's office, from where they can continue to access the machine remotely.

Personal belongings can be stored in the (unlockable) pedestal drawers beneath or next to the desk. Each desk also has a secure locker, whose number corresponds to the desk number.

For security reasons students will only be granted access to their own office.

Please report any buildings defects (leaks, lights, heating, door issues etc) directly to the Estates Operations Customer Services Centre, either via email or by calling from the telephone handset in each office:

Common rooms

Kitchen facilities are located in CAGB 310B and CAGB 145.

There is additional breakout space in CAGB 146A.

The Department is fortunate to have access to an outdoor area on Level 3. Everyone who uses this space is welcome to contribute to the ongoing development and maintenance of the courtyard garden. Please make yourself known to the team in CAGB 318!

2. Departmental Procedures

Departmental Induction

Students who begin their studies at the start of the academic year in October will be invited to a series of induction talks, held over the first three Mondays of term, to help familiarise themselves with the Department and with some of the College’s central services.

If your new ID card has not been sent to the Department, you will need to complete a Day One Safety induction with your supervisor and take the signed form to the ID card office, where your ID card will be issued.

Repeat induction talks will take place after Easter, to accommodate students who have started their PhD after the main October intake.

Conferences

All students are allocated a small budget by the Department to cover the purchase of minor research consumables and conference fees/travel. Further details about travel booking can be found on the Finance webpages.

www.imperial.ac.uk/aeronautics/local/finance

Professional Skills

All doctoral students are expected to achieve a minimum of four Graduate School professional skills credits and to complete the compulsory online plagiarism awareness course as follows:

- By the Early Stage Assessment (ESA) – 2 credits plus the plagiarism awareness course
- By the Late Stage Review (LSR) – a further 2 credits

The Graduate School’s Professional Development attendance requirement exists to ensure that all students receive a broad range of skills development training while at Imperial and the opportunity to engage with students from outside their Department.

See the Graduate School’s website for details:

https://www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/

Please note that it is your responsibility to manage your attendance at Graduate School workshops professionally and to cancel your place, with requisite notice, if you are no longer able to attend. If you do not cancel your place, the Department will incur a fine. This may be reclaimed directly from you if you are unable to prove extenuating circumstances.
English Language Requirement
If you are not a native English speaker you must meet the College’s English language requirements.

See the Admissions website for details:

www.imperial.ac.uk/study/pg/apply/requirements/english

For information on English language support provided by the Centre for Academic English, see page 30.

Attendance and Absence
You must inform your Supervisor if you are absent from College for more than three days during term. If the absence is due to illness you must produce a medical certificate after seven consecutive days. You should also contact your supervisor for support and guidance if your research is being impacted by personal circumstances. This may include making a submission deadline extension request.

Postgraduate Research students undertaking taught elements of a doctoral programme of study should also refer to the College’s Mitigating Circumstances Policy and Procedure:

www.imperial.ac.uk/about/governance/academic-governance/academic-policy/exams-and-assessment/

The Registry will be informed of all student non-attendances as the College is obliged to report the non-attendance of students on Tier 4/Student Route visas to the Home Office.

All Tier 4/Student Route visa-holders will be contacted by the PhD administrator twice a year to take part in an engagement monitoring exercise. Meeting dates, or ‘contact points’ for the list of activities below will be requested and students are encouraged to keep track of the following:

• Meeting with their PhD supervisor
• A PhD progress review
• A doctoral workshop (such as those provided by the Graduate School)
• A class provided by the Centre for Academic English
• An appointment with an international student advisor
• Registration with the College (normally at the start of each academic year)

If you do not engage satisfactorily with your studies, the College will consider what action is necessary to support your continued study under the Unsatisfactory Engagement Policy.

Health and Safety Information
Keeping you safe is a top priority for us. Since 1 April 2022, the UK Government removed all restrictions on public areas, including Universities and education settings. Imperial College London still encourages students to wear face coverings in crowded areas, to get fully vaccinated, to cover your coughs and sneezes, and to respect others’ personal space. All staff and students are advised to stay at home if you are feeling ill or have any symptoms of respiratory disease.

The latest Imperial College guidance to students can be seen at:

www.imperial.ac.uk/about/covid-19/
The College’s Health and Safety Statement can be found at:

Your Departmental safety contact is:

- Dr Nigel MacCarthy
- CAGB 222
- 020 7594 5043
- n.maccarthy@imperial.ac.uk

If your research involves work that needs to be carried out in a laboratory or workshop, you will need to complete a safety induction for each space before access to the area(s) can be granted to you.

There is also a wide range of eLearning micro-learning modules focused on specialised topics and designed to raise awareness of hazards and control measures for working safely in hazardous areas (i.e., laboratories and workshops) across the College.

The College Safety Department

The Safety Department offers a range of specialist advice on all aspects of safety. This includes anything which you feel might affect you directly, or which may be associated with teaching, research or support service activities.

The College’s activities range from the use of hazardous materials (biological agents, chemicals, cryogens, gases and ionising/non-ionising radiation) to field work, heavy or awkward lifting, driving, and working alone or late.

All of the College’s activities are covered by general health and safety regulations, but higher risk activities will have additional requirements.

The Safety Department helps departments and individuals ensure effective safety management systems are in place throughout the College to comply with specific legal requirements.

Sometimes the management systems fail, and an accident or a near-miss incident arises; it is important that we learn lessons from such situations to prevent recurrence and the Safety Department can support such investigations. All accidents and incidents should be reported online at:

To report concerns or to ask for advice you should contact your programme director, academic supervisor or departmental safety officer in the first instance. You may also contact the Safety Department directly.

Occupational Health requirements

The College Occupational Health Service provides services to:
• protect health at work
• assess and advise on fitness for work
• ensure that health issues are effectively managed

The Service promotes and supports a culture where the physical and psychological health of staff, students and others involved in the College is respected, protected and improved whilst at work.

www.imperial.ac.uk/occupational-health

3. Doctoral Milestones and Progress Reports

Although a research degree doesn’t follow the same structure as an undergraduate degree, there are three main stages – or milestones - that you'll need to complete before you submit your thesis and have your viva.

Early Stage Assessment (ESA)
This is scheduled, ideally, 9-10 months from your initial registration, but the absolute deadline is 12 months.

It is a College requirement for all ESA reports to be submitted to Turnitin, a text-matching service that checks for potential plagiarism.

www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/staff/turnitin-guidance/

Late Stage Review (LSR)
This assessment needs to take place within 24 months of your registration.

Progress Review/Transfer to Writing-Up Status
At the end of 36 months’ registration you will be expected to have completed your active research and be ready to transfer to writing-up status. Tuition fees are no longer charged once a student is writing-up their thesis.

In addition to the stages above, please note the final two milestones:

Exam Entry Form: four months before the submission of your thesis

Thesis Submission: 48 months from registration

www.imperial.ac.uk/about/governance/academic-governance/academic-policy/research-programmes/

Please contact the on-course administrator for details about milestone extensions.
The Imperial College London Doctoral Academic Communication Requirement (DACR)

Imperial College London is dedicated to the wellbeing of its doctoral students, which includes supporting the development of their ability to communicate their research effectively and to manage the writing-up process independently. The purpose of the Imperial College London Doctoral Academic Communication Requirement is to quickly identify, and subsequently support, students whose academic writing competence needs to be further developed so that they can successfully complete their degree on time.

[www.imperial.ac.uk/academic-english/current-students/doctoral/academic-communication-requirement/]

4. Academic Support

Departmental Support
Your Department has a system of academic and pastoral care in place to make sure you have access to the appropriate support throughout your time here. This includes:

Director of Postgraduate Studies (DPS)
The DPS has overall responsibility for the co-ordination and management of postgraduate research training in the Department. He/she can provide pastoral guidance as well as intervene should the student fail to make satisfactory progress. The DPS may also act as mediator in cases of dispute between student and supervisor.

Senior Tutor (PGR)
The Department’s Senior Tutor (PGR) can offer pastoral support and advice. You can arrange to have a meeting with them at any time – what you discuss will be completely confidential.

If necessary, they will direct you to an appropriate source of support.

PhD on-course administrator
Your on-course administrator should normally be your first point of call for all issues associated with the administration of your PhD, including any changes of registration, interruptions of studies, tuition fees and bursary payments.

PhD representatives
The Department’s reps are the voice of the PhD community and will raise any concerns you may have about any aspect of College life during your studies. They help to arrange professional and social events throughout the year and will gladly point you to the relevant team if you approach them with a problem.

You can find out more about these roles:

[www.imperial.ac.uk/staff/tools-and-reference/quality-assurance-enhancement/roles-and-responsibilities/]

5. Examination Procedures

My Imperial - Postgraduate Research Milestones
You will be able to upload and submit your exam entry form, thesis declaration form and thesis online, as well as view up-to-date information about your Early Stage Assessment, Late Stage Review and Viva Examination milestone status.

You will receive email notification when online access to Postgraduate Research Milestones is available to you. Access is via My Imperial using your College single sign-on.

www.my.imperial.ac.uk/

There is a Step-by-step guidance to the Examination Entry form process and Thesis Submission process is available online at:

Vivas
Once you have submitted your thesis, the Registry will ensure that copies are provided to your examiners, in advance of your viva examination.

Your supervisor, or another member of staff in your department/division, will be responsible for organising the viva and making all the necessary arrangements.

When your viva has taken place, you will be informed of the outcome.

Please read the Success Guide for postgraduate research students for more advice on preparing for your viva:

www.imperial.ac.uk/students/success-guide/pgr/progression-and-feedback/thesis-submission-and-viva/preparing-for-your-viva/

E-theses: Requesting an Embargo
In some cases, it may be necessary to delay the release of a thesis to the public by applying for an embargo.

If you decide that your thesis should have an embargo, discuss this with your supervisor and tick the appropriate box on the Thesis declaration form:

Reasons for requesting an embargo include:

- You plan to publish your thesis
- To avoid invalidating a potential patent application, see Intellectual Property: www.imperial.ac.uk/research-and-innovation/research-office/research-policies/research-related-policies/ip-policy-college-login/
- It contains commercially sensitive research or research with confidentiality obligations
- It contains information collected under the promise of confidentiality and anonymity e.g. patient information
• It shows evidence of animal experimentation and release to the public would pose a significant risk to the researchers involved or to Imperial staff and students
• It contains information of significance for national security

For further information please contact the Assessment Records team

www.imperial.ac.uk/research-and-innovation/support-for-staff/scholarly-communication/open-access/theses/requesting-an-embargo/

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the presentation of another person's thoughts, words or images and diagrams as though they were your own. Plagiarism can be intentional or unintentional, but must be avoided at all times.

When studying for a research degree (and as you continue in your research career) it is your responsibility to conduct and disseminate research results in an honest and ethical matter. When you prepare your Early Stage Assessment, Late State Review, or final thesis, as well as other publications and presentations throughout your studies, it is essential to avoid plagiarism.

www.imperial.ac.uk/students/success-guide/pgr/progression-and-feedback/writing-reports-and-presentations/being-original-and-plagiarism/

More information about plagiarism awareness for postgraduate research students is available on the Library website:

www.imperial.ac.uk/admin-services/library/learning-support/plagiarism-awareness/

TurnitinUK is an online text matching service which assists staff in detecting possible plagiarism. The system enables institutions and staff to compare students' work with a vast database of electronic sources. You will be expected to run your Early Stage Assessment through the Turnitin software – your department will be able to give you further information about this process.

www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/guidance-for-students-and-staff/turnitin-guidance-for-students/

The Graduate School, in conjunction with the Library, has developed a mandatory online plagiarism awareness course which needs to be completed before your Early Stage Assessment. It aims to equip Imperial PhD students with a working knowledge of the concept of plagiarism and how to avoid it. This enables students to use and share information ethically, with academic integrity.

https://www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/professional-development/doct oral-students/research-integrity/plagiarism-awareness-doctoral-students/
Collusion:
This is the term used for work that has been conducted by more than one individual, where this has not been permitted in the assessment brief. Where it is alleged that there has been collusion, all parties will be investigated under the Academic Misconduct procedure.

You should note that whilst the College encourages students to support each other in their studies you should be careful to ensure that you do not exceed any assessment brief with regards to individual work, acknowledge the contributions of others in your work, and do not leave yourself open to allegations that you have supplied answers to enable another student to commit academic misconduct.

Dishonest practice
This is the most serious category under the procedure. Examples of dishonest practice include bribery, contact cheating (buying work from an essay mill (which is illegal in the UK) or other individual to submit as your own), attempting to access exam papers before the exam, making a false claim for mitigating circumstances or providing fraudulent evidence, falsifying documentation or signatures in relation to assessment or a claim for mitigating circumstances.

Research Misconduct
Research Misconduct can be characterised as behaviours or actions that fall short of the standards of ethics, research and scholarship required to ensure that the integrity of research is upheld. It can cause harm to people and the environment, wastes resources, undermines the research record and damages the credibility of research.

Regardless of discipline and institution, the fundamental factor in ensuring the quality of research and research practices has to be the honesty of the individual investigator. Investigators should be honest with respect to their own work, which means subscribing to proper scientific practices such as acknowledging the contributions of colleagues or collaborators, ensuring veracity of data, and acting with integrity in the depiction of results and conclusions. However, investigators are also expected to be honest in relation to the work of their colleagues and peers. Colluding in, or concealing, the misconduct of others is not compatible with an environment which encourages intellectual honesty and is, therefore, in itself misconduct.

The College’s policy on, and procedures for, the investigation of allegations of research misconduct:

Where a student completes taught module(s) as part of their research programme, they will also be subject to the Academic Misconduct procedures:

6. College Policies and Procedures

Student Academic Regulations
All registered postgraduate research students of the College are subject to the Regulations for Students General Regulations, and the Academic Regulations that apply to your degree.

Unsatisfactory Engagement
Unfortunately, for a variety of reasons, sometimes students struggle to meet the College’s expectations with regards to their engagement with their studies. The College has a process to identify and support students by reaffirming these expectations with an action plan. If a student does not engage satisfactorily engage with these supportive measures, they can be withdrawn from their studies. The full details of this process, and the appeals procedure relating to it can be found at:

Academic Appeals Procedures
We have rigorous regulations in place to ensure assessments are conducted with fairness and consistency, claims for mitigating circumstances have been considered reasonably and in line with the regulations of the College, and that the decisions of the Boards of Examiners maintain the integrity of our academic awards. Should you believe that you have grounds to appeal these decisions, we have laid out clear and consistent procedures through which appeals can be investigated and considered:

Student Complaints
The College strives to ensure that all students are well supported in their studies and receive a good experience of their programme and the wider College activities. If you feel that your experience has not lived up to these expectations the College has an agreed Students Complaints process through which your concern can be investigated and considered.
If you have any concerns about your experience at the College and have been unable to address these informally, you should contact Student Complaints who can provide advice about what is the appropriate way to seek to resolve this at:

Employment During Studies
If you are studying full time, the College recommends that you do not work part-time during term time. If this is unavoidable we advise you to work no more than 10–15 hours per week, which should be principally at weekends and not within normal College working hours.

Working in excess of these hours could impact adversely on your studies or health.

If you are here on a Tier 4/Student Route visa you can work no more than 20 hours a week during term time. Some sponsors may not permit you to take up work outside your studies and others may specify a limit.

If you are considering part-time work during term time you are strongly advised to discuss this issue with your supervisor or Senior Tutor (PGR). If you are on a Tier 4/Student Route visa you should also seek advice from the International Student Support team regarding visa limitations on employment.

Please note that these rules also apply to your work as a GTA:

www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/working-as-a-gta/

The College’s examination boards will not normally consider as mitigating circumstances any negative impact that part-time work during term-time may have had on your performance in examinations or in other assessed work. Examinations or vivas cannot be rescheduled to accommodate your part-time working arrangements.

Study Leave
If you plan to carry out research away from College for a period of 2 weeks or more as part of your PhD student registration, your department can approve study leave using the External Study Leave form (which is then submitted by your department to the Registry Student Records Team for recording). Study leave is normally pursued either as a placement under the supervision of a third party organisation (placements are managed by your department and are subject to College Placement Learning Policy, Good Practice under the College’s overall off-site working protocols) or fieldwork managed by your department under off-site working protocols. Contact your departmental postgraduate administrator for further guidance if you and your supervisor wish to have study leave considered.

Ethics
The College has an overall Ethics code which sets out key behaviours which the College expects of all its members in order to facilitate a leading academic community which demonstrates integrity in all its activities, and which manages relationships with third parties appropriately. These behaviours include honesty, fairness and transparency. The Code is intended to provide a starting point to help members of the College identify and tackle ethical issues faced in the course of their activities. It also describes routes available for members of the College community to escalate ethical concerns where appropriate.

www.imperial.ac.uk/research-ethics-committee
Good Research Conduct
Imperial College London is committed to undertaking research of the highest international quality within an intellectually challenging and inspiring environment, to extending the frontiers of research within and beyond existing research disciplines, and to bringing together research expertise within and beyond the College to address the science challenges of today and the future. The College’s achievements in research are underpinned by the quality and expertise of the individuals within it, and the pages in the link below define the standards of research governance and integrity essential to the College’s reputation and success.

www.imperial.ac.uk/research-and-innovation/about-imperial-research/research-integrity/

Leave
Taking Annual Leave
It is important to take a break from your research and the College has a PGR Annual Leave policy in place to support you.

If you are funded, you should check the terms and conditions of your studentship which will set out your annual leave entitlement. Unless otherwise stated in your terms and conditions, the College’s position is that all research degree students, including international students with a Student Visa, are entitled to a minimum of 30 days to a maximum of 40 days per year (including public holidays and College closure days) of annual leave (pro rata for part-time students). This annual leave entitlement aligns with the UKRI’s terms and conditions for training grants, student annual leave.

Interruption of Studies
An interruption of studies allows you to take a break from your studies and is often required for health-related or other personal- or work-related reasons. You’ll remain a registered student but your enrolment will be frozen, which may affect things like your funding or the sponsorship of your student visa.

https://www.imperial.ac.uk/student-support-zone/advice/my-student-status/interrupting-your-studies/

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
All staff and students who work with personal data are responsible for complying with GDPR. The College will provide support and guidance, but you do have a personal responsibility to comply.

In line with the above please see the College’s privacy notice for students which form part of the terms and conditions of registration with the College.

Feedback from Students

The College and Union is committed to continually improving your education and wider experience and a key part of this is your feedback. Feedback is thoroughly discussed by your student representatives and staff.

Student Representatives are recruited from every department to gather feedback from students to discuss with staff.

11. Student Surveys

Your feedback is important to your department, the College and Imperial College Union. Whilst there are a variety of ways to give your feedback on your College experience, the following survey gives you regular opportunities to make your voice heard:

- Postgraduate Research Experience Survey (PRES)

  The PRES is your chance to tell us about your experience of supervision; resources; research community; progress and assessment; skills and professional development; and wellbeing. This is a national survey that helps us to compare how we are doing against other institutions, to make changes that will improve what we do in future and to keep doing the things that are valued by our students. The survey is open to postgraduate research students and runs across the spring and summer terms. PTES is run bi-annually at the College. The survey is confidential. The more you take part the more representative the results so please take a few minutes to give your views.

The Union’s “You Said, We Did” campaign shows you some of the changes made as a result of survey feedback:

- www.imperialcollegeunion.org/you-said-we-did

The Union’s response to surveys can be found here:

12. Personal Development Opportunities for Research Degree Students

Graduate Teaching Assistants (GTA)

Many research students across the College are involved with teaching, supervision and assessment (in the form of marking) of both undergraduate and Master’s level students. Working as a GTA provides research students with an opportunity to broaden their experience at Imperial College and develop further skills. These include learning to teach, convey complex technical concepts, writing/communication skills, etc. Furthermore, research students may find that acting as a GTA helps improve their own technical abilities (both theoretical and practical), enables them to broaden their knowledge base, and gain communication and task management experience. When considering a career in academia, teaching experience is important and GTA work allows building up a teaching portfolio and even becoming aware of one’s own teaching style.

- www.imperial.ac.uk/students/academic-support/graduate-school/working-as-a-gta/

If you’re interested in becoming a Graduate Teaching Assistant in Aeronautics please contact the Department’s Director of Student Experience & GTA/UTA Coordinator, Dr Demetrios Venetsanos:

Imperial Outreach

The Outreach team at Imperial is responsible for delivering the College’s programme of activities for schools and colleges. The team deliver a wide range of exciting and inspiring activities for students from disadvantaged backgrounds right across the United Kingdom.

The team focuses on raising attainment, changing perceptions, supporting teaching staff and stimulating interest in STEM subjects from primary through to A-Level education, as part of Imperial's widening participation and outreach agenda.

By working with teaching staff, schools, colleges and community organisations they are able to offer support specifically where it is needed through a dedicated portfolio of programmes for young people These programmes form part of the College’s Access Agreement.

To make sure the team offer the fullest breadth of activities, they collaborate with many members of academic staff, as well as student ambassadors who add the valuable perspective of life as a current Imperial student.

Recruitment and Outreach student ambassadors / Outreach STEM Leaders

Our ambassador and leader schemes provides you with an opportunity to work young people to help inspire them to consider studying science, technology, engineering, mathematics and medicine.

Some activities will draw on your subject expertise, giving you the chance to communicate your research in a way that is suitable for a school age audience. Other opportunities may be more generally focused on your experience of higher education through talks about student life for sixth form students or mock interview sessions for potential applicants.

Professional Skills Development Programme
The Graduate School at Imperial provides an internationally renowned and award-winning Professional Development Programme for Postgraduate Research and Postgraduate Taught students.

Funders of doctoral programmes, including governments, industry and research councils expect that you spend time on your professional development (RCUK, 2013), and developing generic research, personal and professional development is an important part of your postgraduate training.

Our Professional Development Programme offers you support in your study and research, as well as the opportunity to develop knowledge, attributes, and skills relevant to your Master’s or Doctorate and your future career whether inside or outside academia. These development opportunities can improve your ability to undertake focused and successful research, present your work to a variety of audiences, and enhance your overall experience at College. Postgraduate alumni, academics and employers have noted the value of the programme.

We work across College with academic and support departments, alumni, students and externals to enable and enhance joined up opportunities. This has a social benefit, fostering networking and collaboration, as our courses, events and activities provide fora for students to interact with others from different departments and divisions.

The Postgraduate Development Unit (PDU) ensures that the Programme is educationally relevant, developing new initiatives and safeguarding quality and relevance. Our Programme is underpinned by educational research focused on the postgraduate student experience.
