

Check list for NMR lab room B12

- 1 Dangerous to enter lab if one has a pacemaker or medical implants.
- 2 Location of oxygen level panel outside lab.
- 3 Correct carriage of samples.
- 4 Keep bags, phones, credit cards etc. well away from the magnets.
- 5 Location of oxygen level depletion warning lights and know what action to take if the alarm sounds.
- 6 Sample submission.
- 7 I have completed the (below) e-learning course on cryogenic liquids and decanting liquid nitrogen.

<https://www.imperial.ac.uk/staff-development/courses-and-programmes/safety-training/safety-courses/cryogenic-liquids-and-decanting-liquid-nitrogen/>

I, the undersigned, have understood and agree to abide by the code of practice for NMR room B12 MSRH.

Signature:

Printed name:

Date:

Course: BSc/MSci/MRes/other (please specify)

Supervisor:

CID:

Short email:

Long email:

If this information is not legible, we will not be able to set up card access.