Upcoming Education Events

Perspectives in Education

25th April, 17:00-19:00, Sherfield Building, Read Lecture Theatre

Emeritus Professor Gareth Jones will deliver the next Perspectives in Education lecture on the topic ‘Competence and Understanding: helping students to achieve both.’ The Perspectives in Education lecture series aims to foster discussion of wider issues in education. The lecture will start at 5 pm and is followed by a drinks reception.

More details and booking can be found here: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/perspectives-in-education-professor-gareth-jones-tickets-43476093165>

IMPLEMnT edit-a-thon

25th April, 12:00-13:00, Royal School of Mines, rooms G38, G39 plus virtual rooms

IMPLEMnT is an online toolkit which will empower teachers to create original resources that support blended learning. The IMPLEMnT team is currently collating examples of technologies and teaching methodologies, and are running an edit-a-thon to co-create further content for the website and to begin generating a college wide community of shared practice in teaching with technology.

The event will involve a combination of virtual rooms and physical spaces where staff can come together and contribute technologies, methodologies and case studies via post-it notes, online chat or shared documents. Join the team online or in the Royal School of Mine on the 25th April to share ideas with people from across college as well as guests from other institutions.

Register your interest using the Eventbrite page: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/implemnt-edit-a-thon-tickets-43887632089>

If you would like further information about the edit-a-thon, please email Katie Stripe at: k.stripe@imperial.ac.uk
