

Guidelines for depositing MSc/MRES Dissertations to Spiral

Version: Only the final and marked version of dissertations can be included.

File format: This must be PDF, please see below for file naming convention.

Appendices: These can also be uploaded and must also be PDF, please see below for file naming convention.

Do not upload: Failed dissertations and/or embargoed (confidential*) dissertations

*Please note that all MSc dissertations uploaded to Spiral will not be available to the public, but only to those with an Imperial College account.

Adding details of dissertations to the Excel template:

The first step is to enter the relevant data into the supplied Excel template.

Fields:	Example:
Course	MSc Engineering and Physical Science in Medicine
Qualification	MSc
Surname	Smith
First_name	Fred
Title	Image Registration in Elasticity Imaging
Distinction	Y (or blank)
Date_awarded	2019
Date_issued	2019
Filename 1	Smith-F-2019-Bio-MSc-Dissertation.pdf
Filename 2/3/4 etc.	Smith-F-2019-Bio-MSc-Dissertation-Appendix-1.pdf

1. Make sure that all the mandatory fields are populated
2. Do not use any non-plain characters such as umlauts, diacritics etc.
3. Do not use smart tags in Office
4. Only use vertically straight quotation marks, i.e. " "
5. Use hyphen (-) and not a dash
6. No spaces should be included in file names

Filenames

Filenames should follow this convention:

Surname-Initial-Year-Departmental Code-Qualification-Thesis.pdf

For example:

Haqqe-M-2017-Med-MSc-Thesis.pdf

For courses within the Business School the following should apply:

- Department should be replaced by Course Name, for example, Management, Finance, etc.
- Variations on the MBA course, e.g. WEMBA, FTMBA, etc., should all be collated under the main MBA qualification heading

Departmental Codes

Engineering

Aeronautics	Aero
Bioengineering	Bio

*tbc indicates that this department has not previously deposited dissertations to Spiral and so no code has been assigned. Departments can create their own codes, but must ensure that every MSc/MRES etc. course within the department uses the same code. If you are depositing for your department for the first time and are unsure about creating a code, please contact openaccess@imperial.ac.uk for advice.

Uploading files and spreadsheet to OneDrive

Prior to uploading, all PDF files should be collated within a Zip file folder. Then:

- Sign in to OneDrive at <https://onedrive.live.com/about/en-gb/signin/> with your Imperial login details
- From the top banner menu, click on 'New', then 'Folder'
- Name your folder "[Department] [Qualification] Dissertations for Spiral deposit"
 - E.g. Medicine MSc Dissertations for Spiral deposit
- Once the zip file of PDF dissertations/appendices has been uploaded, also upload the Excel spreadsheet with the required data to the same folder in Onedrive.
- Right click on the folder name in Onedrive and click 'Share', then enter bs_academic_alerts@imperial.ac.uk in the e-mail field.
- In the message field please type the text below, then click 'Send':

"This folder contains [Qualification] dissertations from the Department of [Department] for immediate deposit to Spiral."

Example

"This folder contains MSc dissertations from the Department of Chemistry for immediate deposit to Spiral."
