

Imperial College London
Graduate School

Roundtable debate on
'Co-creation and innovation
in professional development'

26th October 2018 11 am – 2 pm (with lunch provided)
170 Queen's Gate, Imperial College, Exhibition road, South Kensington SW7
<http://www.170queensgate.co.uk/>

Aim: The aim is to consider co-creation and innovation in our professional development programmes. How do we create programmes that allow for co-creation with students, industry, public and others? How do we embrace innovation and adapt our programmes to keep pace with government drivers (e.g. industrial strategy and the widening of metrics TEF, REF, KEF), industry needs and other sector requirements.

Invitees: Professional Bodies; Learned Societies; UK Organisations; Companies; Higher Education Institutions

Agenda

11:00 – 11:10 Introduction by chair: Professor Sue Gibson, Director Graduate School

11.10 – 11:30 Key note to be confirmed

11.30 12:30 Open Discussion: Where are we now in our practice?

Opportunity for members to share current status from different organisations and viewpoints.

12:30-13:00 Lunch

13:00 -14:00 Open Discussion: How to embrace co-production and innovation

Opportunity for members to debate how do we approach change and development of our programmes and how do we embrace co-production and co-innovation

14.00 Close